Punter's Call

Keep an eye

May 03, 2018

The Nifty opened higher but ended the trading session on a negative note. The index found support at the gap area and witnessed some recovery. Currently, it is trading at the lower end of the rising channel. On the way down, the index has major support around 10629 – 10648 zone. If it breaks the support zone then it can drift lower towards 10500 which is the next major support area. On the way up, the swing high of 10785 will be a crucial resistance in the near term. The up move in the index can continue towards 10910, if it breaches the resistance level of 10785. Overall, we have a bullish outlook on the index for the short term with a target 10910 and reversal placed at 10500.
