Punter's Call

Bulls return

October 01, 2025

The Nifty saw a flat opening and strong buying interest post the RBI policy, surpassing the immediate hurdle of 24800 on a closing basis. The index's near-term resistance is placed at 24900-25000 where the short-term moving averages of 20-DMA and 40-EMA are placed and a break above this will lead to short covering moves. The Bank Nifty was the put performer post the policy and surpassed the immediate hurdle of 55100 and remains in Buy on Dips mode with immediate support at 55000-54800. The index is likely to head towards 56000 where the highest open interest is built up on the call side. The broader market strength has returned with an advance-decline ratio in the favor of advances by more than 2:1.
