Dear Sir / Madam,

Sub: Non-availability of Email id and/or Mobile number

I, the undersigned, am associated with Sharekhan Limited in the capacity of a client and at the time of filing the Know Your Client documents, I have consciously not provided my email id / mobile number to the company.

I, understand the SEBI / NSE / BSE / MCX SX initiative vide various circulars to seek email ids / mobile numbers from clients so as to enable the Exchanges and Sharekhan Limited to dispatch the Electronic Contract Notes / send SMSs to the clients for the trades executed by them immediately on the trade date and thereby ensure that timely intimation is received by the clients for all the trades executed by them in their account (s).

However, notwithstanding the said fact, I hereby state and confirm as under:

- I do not have a mobile number and / or an email id and hence am unable to provide the same
- I am not willing to share my email and / or mobile numbers with Sharekhan

In view of the above, I hereby confirm that I verify the contract notes dispatched to me by Sharekhan Ltd. on a daily basis and hence am liable for all the trades executed in my above mentioned account.

Thanking you,
Yours truly,
